

Shikshan Prasarak Mandal's
Gopalkrishna Gokhale College, Kolhapur.

Feedback Analysis Report
2020-2021

Students Feedback Analysis

The institute's focus is to cater best possible educational environment for teaching and learning to the students to show their excellence in a academic achievement. Feedback of the stakeholders has key role to achieve academic excellence and in the up gradation of the institute. It helps to know, strength, weaknesses, challenges and threats of the institute we have adopted online feedback of students, teachers and alumni through Google form. Feedback of above the stakeholders was collected, analyzed and kept on website. Separate questionnaires have been set for each stakeholders regarding performance was assessed in terms of percentage the issues that received lower percentage were discussed in IQAC for the sake of improvement students feedback analysis.

Various question asked regarding curriculum involve subject knowledge. Global competency of curriculum, values to nationality social awareness, social justice, personality development and up gradation of curricular majority of the students responded in positive way the average percentage of the positive response to the questions were excellent 33.41 better 34.35 and good 28.84 percent.

Teachers' Feedback Analysis

Feedback of the teachers about the curriculum was taken online questions included in the feedback were about understanding of the syllabi to the student, innovativeness in syllabi for life skills, usefulness in employment and entrepreneurship, usefulness in global competency. Usefulness in research and skill development, addition to the values of nationality, addition of values of environment, addition of values to the social justice and up gradation of syllabi. The overall response was in favor of existing curriculum the average percentages of the positive responses to the questions were excellent 46.64, better 38.34 and good 70.00 percent.

Alumni Feedback Analysis

Online feedback of the alumni was taken by setting a questionnaire regarding curriculum these questions comprise global competency usefulness in post graduate admission, values of social responsibility, subject knowledge and usefulness in adding social justice analysis of the responses to these questions was found satisfactory the average percentages of the positive responses of the questions were excellent 32.83, better 32.22 and good 28 percent.